ANTI-COURT SECRECY STAFF ATTORNEY WASHINGTON, D.C.

Public Justice, a national public interest organization, seeks to hire a staff attorney with litigation and advocacy experience who will be dedicated to combating secrecy in litigation in U.S. courts and attendant agreements to secrecy that occur in matters in controversy that have not reached the courts. Public Justice is a non-profit legal advocacy organization that pursues high impact lawsuits to combat social and economic injustice, protect the Earth's sustainability, and challenge predatory corporate conduct and government abuses. The position's title will be the Richard Zitrin Anti-Secrecy Attorney ("Zitrin Attorney").

This position will focus on achieving the following goals through litigation, advocacy, and education:

- Elimination of agreements between parties that make secret information obtained during the discovery and investigation process of litigation; unsealing documents on the court record that were improperly sealed and working to narrow the requirements for sealing court documents;
- Prioritization of abuses of secrecy that directly impact the health and safety of individuals and the public, such as in litigation involving defective and dangerous products, toxic wastes, and direct environmental impact; and
- Elimination of court protective orders in all but the narrowest circumstances with particular attention to multi-district and multi-case judicial protective orders that may prevent the disclosure of information in a multitude of cases.

This position is open as of July 1, 2021, is an exempt position, and reports to a Senior Attorney on our Access to Justice team. Our strong preference is for this position to be based in our Washington D.C. office. Because Public Justice handles litigation, education, and advocacy nationally, the position will likely entail some travel once travel is safe again.

The Zitrin Attorney will work closely with Public Justice's Access to Justice team. The attorney will also work collaboratively with Public Justice's other attorneys, outside lawyers who support Public Justice's work, and other public interest groups to further the goals of this position. The Zitrin Attorney will also engage in educating attorneys and advocates on how to use the legal system to prevent court secrecy.

Job Responsibilities:

- Lead litigation and advocacy efforts to prevent and overcome secrecy agreements and protective orders
- Participate in the full range of litigation tasks involved in challenging court secrecy, including factual investigation, client representation, legal research and analysis, taking and defending discovery, briefing, and oral arguments
- Develop and engage in a broad range of legal advocacy through and outside the courts (including drafting and reviewing legislation; drafting rulemaking petitions, comments to agencies, letters, fact sheets and other materials; and, participating in meetings and events) to prevent secrecy agreements and orders
- Participate in developing and implementing a communications plan to educate lawmakers, trial lawyers, grassroots supporters, and others about the problematic nature of litigation secrecy
- Build networks and collaborate with allies to fight abuses of court secrecy
- Manage and respond to intakes and inquiries involving court secrecy and maintain a robust docket of litigation challenging abuses of court secrecy

Qualifications:

- Law school graduate with relevant legal and advocacy experience.
- Admission to a State Bar
- Preference given to applicants with at least two years of litigation experience. For the purposes of determining litigation experience, we will include clerkships and fellowships.

- A strong desire to reform secrecy and eliminate protective orders in the legal system particularly as it impacts the health and safety of individuals and the public
- Excellent analytical, legal research, and writing skills
- Excellent communication and public speaking skills
- Self-motivation and proven ability to work as part of a team.
- Strong work ethic, initiative, and sound, yet creative judgment
