DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION POLICY

Effective 9/20/2022

Public Justice is committed to a diverse, inclusive, and equitable environment where all staff, including fellows, interns, externs, and members feel respected and valued regardless of gender, gender identity or expression, age, race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, sexual orientation or identity, disability, education, veteran status or any other bias.

This policy is fully supported by senior management and staff and is underpinned by an organization-wide improvement plan, progress against which is reported regularly to senior management and staff.

Definitions

We consider:

Diversity to mean a wide range of qualities, attributes, perspectives, or social identities (Representation).

Equity to mean Everyone has what they need, accounting for unjust advantages or disadvantages based on social identities. Focus is on outcomes.

Inclusion to mean a diversity of people, particularly historically disenfranchised people, fully participate, have decision-making authority, hold power, and have agency. Focus is on engagement.

Diversity, equity and inclusion are not interchangeable but interdependent. There can be no equality of opportunity if differences are not valued and harnessed.

- We’re committed to being nondiscriminatory and providing equal opportunities for employment, internships, externships and advancement in all areas of our work.
- We respect the value that diverse life experiences bring to our staff, and we strive to listen to their views and give them value.
- We’re committed to modeling diversity, inclusion, and equity and maintaining fair and equal treatment for all.
- We’re committed to building trust, understanding change is a process and honest communication is an action.
