

1. My name is [REDACTED] (S.L.). I am 17 years old and a senior in high school. I want to be a dentist and esthetician.
2. My dad, Troy Lyle, is currently in the Benessee jail and has been there since January 2023.
3. My family is a BIG family. We all come together no matter what. We're there for each other through everything.
4. My dad cares about us so much and always wants to keep us safe. He encourages us to go to church. He cares about our school progress.
5. When I got into trouble at school, he called every day worrying about me and wanting me to stay on track. But it's been really hard focusing on school stuff since he's been gone. I have to take care of a lot more things at home to help out my mom, and I feel really sad constantly about not being able to see him.
6. Girls need their dad. There are things I want to and need to talk to him about that I can't because of all the communications restrictions. Phone and video calls are expensive, and the time is so short. It's impossible for me and my 8 siblings to each get any quality time with Dad on phone or video calls. There's a lot of us, and often there are technical difficulties that shorten our calls even more. The video screen is often blurry or will sometimes shut off.
7. Things would be so much better if I could see my dad in person. I feel so uncomfortable with the way phone and video calls are recorded. There are a lot of things that I, as a 17 year old girl, need to talk to my dad about that I can't. There are things a girl needs her dad for, to talk to him about things that I'm going through, that I can't.
8. We talk to him every day, but we need to see him.

9. I've talked to my attorneys about what it means to be part of a class action.
I want to help kids like me and my siblings see their parents.

My family is a big family. We all raise together. We're there for each other through everything. We've always been there for each other. We've always been there for each other. We've always been there for each other.

When I get into trouble at school, he comes running. When I get into trouble at school, he comes running. When I get into trouble at school, he comes running. When I get into trouble at school, he comes running.

There's a lot of us. There's a lot of us. There's a lot of us. There's a lot of us. There's a lot of us. There's a lot of us. There's a lot of us. There's a lot of us.

Things would be a much better if I could see my dad in person. I feel so... Things would be a much better if I could see my dad in person. I feel so... Things would be a much better if I could see my dad in person. I feel so...
